Courses

Human Rights

Arab Course

The Human Security, Human Rights and Global Governance course provides multi - and interdisciplinary training. It promotes the critical capacity, the analytical approach to the proposed topics and the development of the skills necessary to carry out research. The course develops the knowledge and skills necessary to protect and promote human rights in the context of political and legal processes of multilevel governance, from the local to the national and international levels. The goal is to provide students with the skills and tools to analyze political, social and cultural phenomena and their impact on the different levels of governance.
