

Schedule 2026

Event Title 1.01.2026 – 30.12.2026	Data	Brief Description	Number of participants total (approx)	Target groups (academics, civil society, business, etc)	Web-link
Dragomanov Ukrainian State University
Seminar “Resilience and social competence development”	April 13 2026	This intersectoral seminar will provide the practical tools and methodology of social resilience for individuals and communities, in particular for social workers, volunteers, educators	32 (20/80)	Academic, civil society, helpers, students
Bogdan Khmelnytsky Melitopol State Pedagogical University
Media Literacy Quest “Proficient Social Media Users”	April 2, 2026	The quest will consist of two parts: the first part will be organised as an express-workshop aimed at the revision of basic rules of behaviour in social media and netiquette; the second part will be organised as a competition in handling with the information posted in social media. The target audience are young people from different communities, primarily the front-line ones.	30 (50/50)	20/80
Psycho-social supportive groups	October, 2026	A series of consultations for the representatives of vulnerable groups (veterans, internally displaced people, families who have children with special educational needs, etc.) organised both online and offline in different communities (in Zaporizhzhia and Tiachiv).	40 (50/50)	20/80
Sumy National Agrarian University

Winter Business School "Business Development in Frontline Communities: Increasing Social and Entrepreneurial Responsibility and Strengthening Interaction between Universities and the Community"	January 2025 (2 weeks)	Students in grades 9–11 from the city of Sumy and the Sumy community were invited to participate in the event. Participants have a unique opportunity to immerse themselves in the world of entrepreneurship, learn the basics of starting their own business, forming business projects, and learn about the specifics of choosing a future profession.	80 (20/60)	80 (15/65)
Workshop. Strategic priorities for community mobilization, support for local initiatives, including social ones.	February 2026	In synergy between international organizations, the university, and communities, an institutional framework for sustainable development of rural areas is being formed.	30 (5/25)	30 (30/-)
Roundtable: From digitalization to sustainable development: modern approaches to the development of Ukrainian communities	April 2025	The roundtable is dedicated to discussing how digital technologies and environmental practices are becoming key tools for the development of modern Ukrainian communities. Participants will consider successful cases of digitalization, opportunities for implementing "smart" solutions, approaches to resource management and increasing energy efficiency. Special attention will be paid to citizen engagement, transparency of management and finding financial opportunities for implementing innovations. The event is aimed at developing practical recommendations and forming a vision for sustainable community development in the coming years.	30 (5/25)	30 (30/-)
Donetsk State University of Internal Affairs
Roundtable discussion: "Police and Community: Joint Solutions for Regional Security"	January / March 2026	The event will bring together the representatives of local self-government bodies, civil society organisations, veteran communities, and cadets of the Donetsk State University of Internal Affairs to discuss current security	122/N/N challenges and to explore mechanisms for effective police–community engagement and cooperation for community safety

Practical training session: 'First Aid for the Community'	February/April 2026	A joint training event for cadets of Donetsk State University of Internal Affairs, volunteers, and community residents, delivered with the participation of specialists from the State Emergency Service of Ukraine and the Ukrainian Red Cross, aimed at strengthening civilian safety and preparedness	95/N/N
Discussion platform: 'Veterans in the Community: Experience, Support, and Adaptation'	DonSUIA runs these events on a regular basis throughout the 2026 year	A meeting between students and veterans alongside representatives of veteran civil society organisations and the Veterans Affairs Unit, aimed at fostering civic awareness and respect for Ukraine's defenders.	150/N/N		